FROM OUR PASTOR

Today, on the Feast day of the Holy Family, the Church invites us to turn our eyes toward a home in Nazareth - simple, quiet and ordinary on the outside, yet extraordinary within. In Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, we see not a perfect family free from struggle, but a holy family that learned to trust God in the midst of real life.

The Gospel from Matthew does not present us with a calm, idealized picture of family life. Instead, it places us in the middle of fear, danger, and uncertainty. An Angel appears to Joseph in a dream and says, "Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt." This is the story of a family on the run. From the very beginning, the Holy Family knows what it means to suffer. They experience the threat of violence, the pain of exile, and the insecurity of living as strangers in a foreign land. This reminds us that holiness does not mean a life free from hardship. Rather, holiness is found in trusting God and remaining faithful even when life becomes frightening and unstable.

Joseph stands at the center of this Gospel. He speaks no words, yet his actions speak powerfully. Each time God speaks to him, Joseph rises immediately and obeys. He does not question, delay or demand explanations. In the middle of the night, he takes Mary and the child and sets out on a dangerous journey. Joseph teaches us that true love within the family often requires sacrifice, courage, and silent obedience.

Mary, too, shares in this journey of faith. She entrusts her child, her future and her safety to God's plan. Together, Mary and Joseph show us a family united not by comfort, but by faith. Their home is no longer Nazareth, their security is no longer familiar. Their only certainty is that God is guiding them.

Jesus, still a child, enters fully into the vulnerability of human life. He becomes a refugee, sharing the experience of countless families today who are forced to flee violence, poverty or persecution. In the Holy Family, God identifies Himself with the displaced, the homeless and the fearful. This Gospel challenges us to see Christ in families who suffer and to respond with compassion and hospitality.

When Herod dies, God speaks again to Joseph. "Rise, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel." Once more, Joseph obeys. Yet even then, the journey is not simple. Fearing Herod's son, the family settles in Nazareth. God's plan unfolds step by step, not all at once. This teaches us that family life is often lived in uncertainty, where we must rely on God. One day at a time.

On this feast, the Holy Family reminds us that the family is called to be a place of protection, faith, and trust in God. Families today face threats of different kinds - violence, division, poverty and loss of faith. Like Joseph, we are called to listen to God, to protect life and to place our families in God's hands. May the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph intercede for our families, especially those who live in fear, those who are displaced and those struggling to remain united. May our homes become places where God's will is trusted and where love is stronger than fear.

JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE 2025

Christmas: Jesus is Our Hope (1 Tim. 1:1)

As we continue to celebrate the birth of the Christ Child, let us seek deeper communion with the Son of God who is our hope. We are reminded at Christmas that "each year, as the Church recalls this mystery, she urges us to renew the memory of the great love God has shown us. This holy season teaches us that Christ's coming was not only for the benefit of contemporaries; His power has still to be communicated to us all. We shall share His power, if, through holy faith and the Sacraments, we willingly accept the grace Christ earned for us, and live by that grace and in obedience to Christ." (Saint Charles
